This corner of northwest Montana is a scenic treasure. There are countless outdoor activities in this nature's playground. If you are an outdoor enthusiast then this is a place for you.

Some of the best motorcycle riding in the country and endless back roads for ATVing and for winter riding there are miles and miles of snowmobile trails. Backpacking and hiking in the Cabinet Wilderness or Scotchmen Peaks Wilderness areas are beautifully remote with mountain lakes and streams. This area offers many scenic wonders from the Kootenai Falls to the ancient Ross Creek cedars. If you enjoy kayaking, the Kootenai River can give you some thrills of a lifetime. The Kootenai River also provides record setting trout fishing and leisurely float trips. Photo opportunities abound with our abundance of wildlife; bald eagles, moose, deer, elk, mountain sheep, black and grizzly bear. For winter fun, Turner Mountain Ski area has some of the best powder in the US, according to Ski Magazine.
